

Creative Coding Lab

Project A: Paper Prototype

Instructions:
The rectangle in the middle of this page represents your P5 sketch. With a pen, sketch out what you imagine your project to look like. Use the white space around the sketch to add explanations about what we see, how things should move and describe the interactions you envision. You may print out multiple copies of this page to show different states of your project.